MFA Merges Technology Consulting Business with its Risk Advisory and Valuation Firm

Combined Entities Will Now Operate As MFA Cornerstone Consulting, LLC

July 8, 2008, Tewksbury, MA – MFA – Moody, Famiglietti & Andronico, LLP recently merged its risk advisory and valuation firm, MFA Risk Services, and its technology consulting business, Competitive Advantage Technologies, into a newly named affiliate company, MFA Cornerstone Consulting, LLC.

“Technology is a fundamental component of business operations and has always played a key role in the strategies and solutions we design for our clients,” said MFA Managing Partner, Carl Famiglietti. “By combining the service offerings, expertise and experience of Competitive Advantage Technologies with those of MFA Risk Services, we further strengthen our ability to help clients optimize performance, control risk, and appropriately assess the value of their enterprise.”

The merger of the two companies into a single entity reflects MFA’s move toward an all-encompassing approach to guiding organizations in ways that promote stability and growth. As the new name implies, MFA Cornerstone Consulting helps clients to build an indispensable foundation on which their corporate operations can run, corporate goals can be achieved, and corporate leaders can rely on.
